Before You Leave

1. Double Check Your Move-In Time
   • Visit the move-in schedule here: campusliving.ecu.edu/move-in-schedule-2019/
   • Wait until your selected move-in time to arrive at check-in

2. Review Our ‘What to Bring/What to Leave at Home’ List
   • Visit campusliving.ecu.edu/what-to-bring-what-leave-at-home/
   • Remember that a refrigerator and microwave are both provided

3. Follow These Packing Tips
   • Label items with your name, hall and room number, and banner ID
   • Use boxes, bins, totes, bags/luggage, etc., as much as possible
     (especially at Clement, Greene, and White Halls)
   • Limit the number of cars you bring to move in, if possible
   • Remember that you can always buy items in Greenville after you arrive

Move-In Queue Codes

- After check-in, the next step is to return to your car and drive to the designated move-in queue for your residence hall (see the list below).
- After arriving at your move-in queue, you will wait in your car. Once a space in your hall’s designated move-in unloading area is available, you will be given a move-in pass which includes directions to the unloading area.
- After unloading your car, drive to the parking area. Follow the directions on the back of your move-in pass.

Additional Tips

- Pace yourself and drink water and fluids. It will be hot in Greenville in August.
- Make sure everything is in a box or carton, if possible, to help keep items from dragging on the ground.
- Bring your own handcart (we will have a supply on campus, but at peak times access to these might be limited).
- Share photos of your experience on social media using the hashtag #ECUMoveIn
